

HR Internal Consultants (HR IC) is a group of highly qualified human resource consultants. Our firm specializes in the projects concerning recruitment of higher and middle skill managerial resources and dedicated specialization experts.

Our client is an international, innovative, fast growing, production company operating successfully in animal feed business and selling & distributing technology advanced products to the farming industry in Europe, Asia and Americas.

Currently due to the company business growth and development our Client is looking to fill the position of - Sales Manager Poultry - reporting to Country Manager Poland.

Mission:

- Create and develop new and existing business relationships with poultry accounts in the territory of Poland
- Perform and co-ordinate necessary field sales activities including feed producers, pre-mix companies, and major poultry farms
- Contribute to marketing and product development projects and feed programs

Requirements:

- min. 4-6 years of experience in sales & marketing of animal nutrition products
- Higher education in agriculture preferably with animal feed specialty
- Very good knowledge of poultry feed specifics
- Strong business approach
- Ability to work independently

- Very good command of English and Polish languages
- Driving licence

Our Client can offer:

- Possibility to work on an independent position with full responsibility for the product/ market development of poultry products in Poland
- Possibility to constantly develop your competencies in a technology advanced company
- Competitive remuneration package

For immediate consideration, please email your most recent resume to Joanna Krowicka, e-mail: jk@hric.pl or contact directly to mobile +48 660 703 703